Re: Ensign Engineering P.C. -
St. Anselm/St. Athanasius Parish Schools
Our File No. 472-298/299

Dear Sir/Madam:

We represent Ensign Engineering P.C. in two litigations involving the St. Anselm Parish School and St. Athanasius Parish School. Both schools are located in Bronx, New York and both litigations arise out of FAA funded soundproofing projects to reduce interior aircraft noise levels per Federal Government guidelines. Our client, Ensign Engineering, was retained to provide engineering services with regard to said projects in or about 2003. The majority of the construction work for the project occurred in or about 2007/2008.

As such, we ask that you please accept this as a Freedom of Information Law ("FOIL") request for project documents in your possession in connection with the above schools and sound proofing projects, including the following materials:

- Contractor payment certifications;
- Requests for information;
- Contracts;
- Correspondence;

- E-mails;
- Payments made and/or authorized by the Port Authority;
- Meeting minutes;
- Field Notes/Observation Reports;
- Complaints regarding the contractor's work;
- Schedules;
- Subpoenas to testify at any arbitrations and/or criminal trial;
- Transcripts of any testimony;
- Internal reports/memos;
- Any internal administrative hearings;
- Change orders; and,
- Any and all project documents in your possession.

This office would be pleased to reimburse you for reasonable photocopying expenses in connection with our request for the above materials. We do ask that you please notify us in advance of incurring said expenses on our behalf.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

Stephen P. Schreckinger
