Question # 4	The breakaway zipper is patented. Would you accept bids for a breakaway vest with a Velcro closure only?
Answer # 4	No. Multiple manufacturers offer a zipper and Velcro combination. The Port Authority will consider only products that contain a zipper and Velcro combination.
Question #5	The NFPA701 rating you require for your vests is not compatible with ANSI/ISEA 107-2010.

PS11A11

Answer #5	Although the newer requirement for ANSI/ISEA 107-2010 does not call for an NFPA 701 marking in the standard, that does not mean that an NFPA 701 test cannot be accomplished/completed. It remains a requirement for the safety vests which call for it.
