Holiday Travel Tips

Give yourself the gift of stress-reduced travel this holiday season by taking a few minutes for advance planning.

The Transportation Security Administration offers valuable tips, for example, on how to pack, traveling with gifts, revised screening procedures for passengers younger than 12 or older than 75, and how to find compatible baggage locks. Visit the TSA website to learn more.

Keep up with changing conditions by following your airline on Twitter. You can also sign up for Airport Info-Alerts or download Flysmart App on your mobile device to check your flight's status.

Take advantage of on-airport parking at the four airports. At Stewart International, ample parking is located across the street from the terminal. Parking spaces are plentiful at Kennedy International, Newark Liberty International and LaGuardia, where you can reserve a space online, in advance for just $5. All parking lot fees include tax.

If you're arriving at one of the airports and have a question, ask a Customer Care Representative for assistance — you'll know them by their distinctive red jackets. More than 25 languages are spoken

by the representatives. If you need a ride from the airport, visit a Welcome Center to obtain transportation from a variety of approved services. Never accept a ride from anyone who approaches you, even if they look official. And the best tip of all? Don't wait to the last minute to arrive at the airport. Allow plenty of time for screening.
PANYNJ Airports Set Air Traffic Record Some 10.8 million passengers traveled through Kennedy International, Newark Liberty and LaGuardia in August 2012, breaking a record set in the same month in 2007. AirTrain JFK, the popular airport connection to New York City mass transit, also enjoyed its best month ever for paid ridership. Read more.	 New record set at JFK
