

Aviation Department

Passenger traffic declined for three of the four airlines at SWF/Allegiant Air was the sole exception. SWF traffic was down 10.6% in July on an 11.4% seat capacity decrease. Of five destinations that carriers served, three experienced seat capacity erosion, with Orlando accounting for 90% of this decline due to JetBlue's flight attrition to this city. Except for Allegiant, carriers are planning further capacity attrition. Therefore, we expect a further decline of passenger traffic.
