(Or wherever else in the world you want to go)

1. New daily nonstop flights to New York’s JFK International Airport on American Airlines start October 7th.
2. Daytime flights – no “red eyes.” Leave Tucson in the morning and be in New York before the end of the business day. From New York, leave at dinner time and be where you want to be in Tucson in time for the 10 o’clock news.

The Schedule:

FLIGHT 1521	Depart Tucson	7:57 a.m.*	Arrive New York JFK	4:00 p.m.	Effective Oct. 7
FLIGHT 1340	Depart New York JFK	5:00 p.m.	Arrive Tucson	8:12 p.m.*	Effective Oct. 6

*Effective November 6, TUS departure will be 8:57 a.m. and TUS arrival will be 9:12 p.m.

Flight numbers are subject to future change.

3. Competitive airfares. American Airlines’ fares to New York are comparable to its nonstop airfares from other airports in the western U.S.
4. No worries over possible flight delays to make connections at airports along the way to New York.
5. Less Stress. Tucson International Airport ranks high in customer satisfaction. It’s safe, clean and easy to use with convenient parking priced as low as $4 per day. Even the most expensive long-term parking in the garage is just $9 a day. And once you’re in the terminal, there’s free Wi-Fi.

6. Convenient connections at JFK. TUS-JFK flights are timed to connect with flights going to and coming from important trans-Atlantic destinations.

7. JFK nonstop flights are aboard next-generation Boeing 737-800s outfitted with cutting-edge technology featuring a contemporary atmosphere and lighting with AC power outlets at each seat and inflight Wi-Fi capability throughout the aircraft. Each aircraft has 160 leather seats – 16 recliner seats in first class, 30 Main Cabin Extra seats with more legroom, and 114 economy seats. On-demand entertainment choices include over 200 movies and TV shows, 18 radio channels, and albums from your favorite artists.
8. Fly past wasted time in traffic and the unpredictability of I-10. Best of all when returning home, there’s no long 2-hour drive!
9. Support the Tucson regional economy. Using Tucson International Airport shows that passengers want to use the airport and encourages airlines to add more flights. More flights make it easier for people to do business with other businesses in Tucson – and that includes the vital tourism industry.
10. Even if New York – or a connection through New York – isn’t where you’re heading, there are 17 other nonstop flight destinations to/from Tucson International Airport.
