Re: Milagros Ponce v. The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, et al.
Index No.: 301027/07

Dear Mr. Wilbertson:

This will confirm the arrangement governing the retention of the ADM Information Services, LLC ("ADM") by The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, including, but not limited to, Port Authority Trans-Hudson Corporation (collectively referred to as the "Port Authority"), to provide expert investigative services in the above referenced matter pending in the Supreme Court of New York, State County of the Bronx.

All materials prepared by the ADM, shall be provided directly to General Counsel of the Port Authority (or his designee), on a confidential basis. This retainer may be terminated by either party upon five business days' written notice to the other party.

The Port Authority will pay ADM for all expert investigative services provided under this retainer, fees on the basis of a $105 per hour for surveillance and testimony. The Port Authority will also pay to ADM all reasonable and necessary expenses paid or incurred by ADM in connection with the provision of such expert investigative services; provided, however, that any proposed single item of expense in excess of $150 shall require the prior written consent of General Counsel (or his designee). ADM will bill the Port Authority for such expert investigative services at the conclusion of such expert investigative services, and shall maintain accurate records substantiating all items for which compensation is sought. Such records shall be available for inspection by General Counsel (or his designee) upon reasonable prior notice to ADM. Any proposed revision to the hourly charges described above shall be provided to General Counsel at least twenty business days prior to its effective date but in no event shall the rates be adjusted during the calendar year 2012.

This retainer is made upon the understanding that neither any Commissioner nor any officer, agent, representative or employee of the Port Authority shall be held personally liable by ADM under any term or provision of this retainer or because of the execution or attempted execution of this retainer by the Port Authority or because of any breach thereof.
