Dear Custodian of Records:

Pursuant to the Port Authority's Freedom of Information Code, I am writing to request a copy of the following:

Access to all emails sent by Patrick J. Foye, Bill Baroni, Scott H. Rechler and David Samson from October 27, 2012 to November 3, 2012.

I am a reporter at The Associated Press and this request is being made as part of news gathering and not for commercial use. The AP believes there is public interest in this information, and requests you waive any and all applicable fees associated with it.

If not, as required under the Port Authority's Freedom of Information Code, if the costs are to exceed more than one "person hour," please send a breakdown of the cost estimate for providing the information before executing the request.

Also, as required by the code, if this request is denied in whole or in part, please justify, in writing, the denial and/or deletions by reference to specific exemptions contained in the code. We also request, as the code provides, that you release all segregable portions of otherwise exempt material. We reserve the right to appeal any decision to withhold any information and/or to dispute any fees charged.

Because such information must be made readily available, I anticipate receiving it as soon as possible but, in no event, later than the five (5) business days required by the code. If you cannot make the requested documents available to me within that time frame, kindly let me know, in writing, when I can expect the documents and the reason for the delay.

Feel free to call me at 973-642-0151 with any questions. Please direct all written responses to me by email at kzezima@ap.org.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Katie Zezima
Supervisory Correspondent, The Associated Press

Re: Freedom of Information Reference No. 13626

Dear Ms. Zezima:

This is a response to your December 10, 2012 request, which has been processed under the Port Authority's Freedom of Information Code, for access to all emails sent between Patrick J. Foye, Bill Baroni, Scott H. Rechler and David Samson from October 27, 2012 to November 3, 2012.

Notwithstanding the overly broad nature of your request, the material responsive to your request, to the extent it exists, is exempt from disclosure pursuant to exemption (5) of the Code.

Very truly yours,

Daniel D. Duffy
