

1 World Trade set to become NYC's tallest building

NEW YORK (WABC) -- One World Trade Center is about to become New York City's tallest building.

Construction reached the 93rd floor last week, making it the city's second-tallest skyscraper behind the Empire State Building.

At the current pace of construction, One World Trade will be the city's tallest building in another in four to six weeks.

ABC

DATE: 03.19.12